

YOUR VOTE FOR LLOYD C. THOMAS

For State Representative Means Able, Adequate and Efficient Representation For Box Butte and Sheridan Counties in the Nebraska State Legislature.

He stands for an economical and business administration of the affairs of our state government; for better roads; for the development of the resources of western Nebraska; for better working conditions for the farmer, the laboring man; and the railroad man; for better regulation of public service corporations. He favors the enforcement of our present laws and the enactment of laws which will give the boys and girls of Nebraska every opportunity to become useful, contented citizens.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Lloyd C. Thomas, of the Alliance Herald, has filed for nomination for state representative on the democratic ticket. This makes two democratic editors in the race. Bro. Thomas is a first-class newspaper man and able to fill the office.—Rushville Recorder, Republican, Jan. 28, 1916.

Lloyd Thomas, editor of the Alliance Herald, has filed for representative on the Democratic ticket and intends to make an active campaign for the nomination and election. There is no question of his high standing with the Alliance fire department that will give him strong prestige in the race here in Alliance and his wide acquaintance over the district will be to his advantage. From the standpoint of ability to fill the position there can be no just criticism and he will be no small factor in the race.—Alliance News, Democratic, January 27, 1916.

The Alliance Herald says that Lloyd C. Thomas of that city will probably file as a democratic candidate for representative from this, the 73rd, district. Lloyd conducts a funny column in the Herald, but we did not get this information from that department. Since Alliance has grown larger than the district Lloyd should have made the announcement in his department. If the district is to be represented by a democrat, Mr. Thomas would be the proper man to send.—Gordon Journal, Republican, Jan. 27, 1916.

The republican newspapers up in Box Butte and Sheridan counties are confronted with a strong desire to support Lloyd Thomas, democratic candidate for representative and who is also a brother newspaper man. From many years' acquaintance with Lloyd we consider him one of the cleanest, brightest and most progressive young men in western Nebraska. It is no wonder that the republican editors feel inclined to support him.—Bridgeport News-Blade, Republican, October 6, 1916.

The Courier learns that Lloyd C. Thomas, editor of the Alliance Herald, has filed for representative on the democratic ticket for the 73rd district, composed of Box Butte and Sheridan counties. Although the Courier and its editor are not in that district and are republican and not supposed to butt into the race, yet is going to do so far enough to say if he is nominated and elected the interests of western Nebraska will get earnest boosting by that live wire editor all the time.—Crawford Courier, Republican, Jan. 28, 1916.

Lloyd Thomas, a prominent fireman of Alliance, newspaper publisher and editor, and publicity man during the convention in Nebraska City last winter, will be a candidate for the legislature according to word brought back from Crawford by Nebraska City firemen. Mr. Thomas handled the convention for The Press last winter. He is a very able young man, a live wire and an indefatigable worker.—Nebraska City Daily Press, January, 1916.

Lloyd C. Thomas, the able editor of the Alliance Herald, has thrown his hat into the ring for the office of representative. All anyone needs is to read a few copies of the Herald to know that Lloyd is there with the goods when it comes to ability.—Hay Springs News, February 11, 1916.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

From the Nebraska Daily Press, January 21, 1915:
Lloyd C. Thomas, state publicity chairman for the state volunteer firemen's association, who is assisting The Press in reporting the convention, although only twenty-six years of age holds a conspicuous place in Nebraska newspaper circles. He is business manager and city editor of The Alliance Herald, the official organ of the association, and the leading western Nebraska newspaper.
Mr. Thomas, or "Lloyd" as he is called by delegates, the majority of whom he is acquainted with, has been in the newspaper business for six years at Alliance. He is a good talker and a ready mixer. During his newspaper experience he has held such positions as state press chairman for the Nebraska Division of the Travelers' Protective Association, representing 2,000 Nebraska traveling men, and as secretary of the Alliance Commercial Club.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Lloyd C. Thomas, of the Alliance Herald editorial staff, has cast his hat into the ring for the nomination for state representative for the 73rd district, comprising Box Butte and Sheridan counties. Lloyd is an energetic young man possessed of the necessary ability for the position and is an enthusiastic pusher for everything that will benefit the state in general and the northwest part in particular.—Crawford Tribune, Democratic, Jan. 28, 1916.

Plenty of political timber is springing up for the nomination for representative from the 73rd district. Gordon has three candidates in the field and Alliance has one, with a strong possibility that Lloyd C. Thomas, business manager of the Alliance Herald, will file. He stated in a recent issue that he was being "pushed into the race by admiring friends" and that it was possible he would enter.

Mr. Thomas has a wide acquaintance throughout the district and this should enable him to make a strong run for the honors.—Alliance Times, Republican, Jan. 25, 1916.

Lloyd C. Thomas, the business manager of the Alliance Herald, is said to be a prospective candidate for representative in that district to follow F. M. Broome, who has been appointed to the receivership of the Valentine land office. Lloyd is a particularly bright young man, is popular and progressive, and if it were not for his democratic tendencies would make a good representative. The republican candidate will have to go some to beat him.—Bridgeport News-Blade, Republican, Jan. 28, 1916.

Lloyd Thomas, editor of the Alliance Herald, publishes one of the best papers in Nebraska. Of course he has a good field to cover, and he covers it thoroughly. Mr. Thomas is the democratic candidate for state representative from his county, and, no doubt, will be elected because he and his newspaper rank first among the boosters for western Nebraska.—Orleans Chronicle, October 19, 1916.

From The Nebraska Daily Press, January 22, 1915:

Mention of the convention would not be complete without some reference to the work of Lloyd Thomas, publicity chairman for the state association. While other delegates have been having a good time after the close of the session, Mr. Thomas has been pecking away at his typewriter in rooms G and H at the Grand Hotel. He has more capacity for hard work than any other man attending the meeting and his fellow townsmen have said of him that while other fellows were "rattling around," "Lloyd" was always at work. And they spoke the truth. Thomas is all business—there is no foolishness about him. The bright lights have no appeal for him. The convention did a wise thing in keeping him on the job as publicity expert and in keeping his paper, The Alliance Herald, as the official organ. The Press has been under obligations to him for his work and for the cheerful manner in which he handled it. Especially was he appreciated for having submitted plainly-written, carefully executed "copy" for the printers, copy that needed very little revision.

Democracy Means Efficiency, Prosperity, Economy and Peace With Honor!

GEORGE M. ADAMS
Candidate for State Senator
28th DISTRICT

I believe in preserving our State Railway Commission, and am opposed to the Republican idea of surrendering our rights to the federal government for control over all public service corporations, for they yield to no principle of progress that is not forced upon them through legislation.

I believe you should vote the Democratic ticket because it has brought prosperity; it has given the country a financial system which makes money panics impossible. The Federal Reserve and Rural Credit acts are two of the best financial laws ever enacted for the benefit of the cattlemen and farmers, which will enable them to borrow money at the rate of six per cent interest.

Safety First! Let Well Enough Alone!

Vote for GEORGE M. ADAMS for State Senator

I herewith submit to you a few reasons why you should vote and support GEORGE M. ADAMS for State Senator of the 28th District:

I am a native of this state, born at Tekamah, Nebraska, in the year 1872. Thirty-one years of my life I have lived at Crawford, Nebraska, and, from years of experience I have had in the mercantile and other lines of business, I am in position to say what I think we need in this part of the state in the way of legislation.

Of my record in the 1907 session of the State Legislature I am not ashamed, and you are now, certainly, enjoying the social and financial benefits of some of my work performed at that session.

I believe in making all improvements possible for travel on our public highways; also working the state penitentiary convicts on the public roads, utilizing the money so earned, if they have any dependent parents or family, in full for their support.

I believe the automobile should pay a single tax for road purposes only.

I believe in the state printing the text books for the public schools.

I believe in sending the sample ballot out to every tax-paying voter, at least, ten days before election.

I also believe the mail ballot privilege should be granted to every voter in the county, if voted in some other precinct than where he lives.

Andrew M. Morrissey
Non-Partisan Candidate to Succeed Himself.

The judiciary has been taken out of politics. Judges are not nominated by political parties, but are voted for on a separate non-partisan ballot. Judge Morrissey's work as Chief Justice has been heartily commended by those having business before the Supreme Court. In the April primaries the voters showed their appreciation of his efforts by giving him a splendid majority. Out of 93 counties he received a majority of 80; and in the whole state he received 9,993 more votes than were cast for any other candidate for Chief Justice. He is in vigorous health; in the prime of life; has demonstrated his fitness for the position, and for these reasons you are asked to help elect him to succeed himself.

V. E. WILSON

The "people's attorney" in rate cases before the state railway commission is himself a candidate for election to the commission this year. He is among the most widely known Nebraskans from his authorship of the bank guaranty and the 8 o'clock saloon closing laws, and his great fight against the increase of telephone rates. His years of experience successively as farmer, business man, bank examiner, legislator and attorney, in connection with the soundness of his views on telephone and railway regulation, especially fit him for the office.
Voters, don't fail to vote for him—Victor E. Wilson, for state railway commissioner. He is on the democratic ticket, but he thinks that the office should be made non-partisan.
VOTE FOR VICTOR WILSON

Wm. H. Smith, State Auditor.
State Auditor Smith is serving his first term and is a candidate for re-election. His motto has been "Business Methods Applied to the Public's Affairs." The cost of operating his department was reduced $5,039.52 during the first 18 months of his term. His influence and vote were exerted in securing a $1,015,000.00 reduction in state taxes in 1915-16, and in raising the valuation of the railroads $5,000,000.00 for taxation purposes in 1916.

CHARLES W. POOL
Secretary of State

Caniddate for Second Term
As a member of the State Board of Equalization and Assessment I voted in favor of reducing the tax levy for state purposes in 1915-16, and as a result of such reduction the taxpayers of Box Butte county were saved $4,802.97 in those two years as compared with the preceding two years. I believe I have earned your confidence and am deserving of your support for re-election.
